NOTICE OF Parent Education Program Requirement

If you are a party to any case in which custody of your child is an issue, then you are required to attend a Parenting Education Program. You must attend Parenting Education Program even if you and your child's other parent are in full agreement as to all issues concerning your child's custody.

1. You may obtain information and a list of approved Parenting Education Programs from the Circuit Clerk at the county Courthouse.
2. You should complete your Parenting Education Program as soon as possible.
3. Proof of completion of your Parenting Education program must be filed at the Circuit Clerk's Office at the Courthouse.
4. The Court may decline to enter a judgment or order concerning child custody until you have completed a Parenting Education Program.
5. The Court may sanction you if you wilfully refuse to complete a Parenting Education Program.
